

Stay up to date with what's happening at Eden!

Autumn is in full swing! Faculty and staff are out and about, representing the seminary at denominational conferences, fairs and events across the nation. Eden's Garden and Gleaning project is also in high gear, inviting communities to participate in imagining how a community garden would work in their regions. We were thankful to have Eden's Board of Trustees on campus and on Zoom this week for planning and executing strategies that strengthen the Progressive Christian movement. We hope you will join us on campus or online soon!

Eden continues the tradition of remembering those that have gone before us at the All Saints Day service on November 1, 2022 . This year, All Saints Day falls on a Tuesday, the day of dinner chapel. Along with our usual dinner chapel worship, we will join in a reading of the names of all those lost to the Eden community in the last year, lifting them up in prayer and song. Please contact advancement@eden.edu if you would like to add the name of a loved one, by tomorrow, October 28, 2022. (Please include the phonetic respelling (pronunciation) of the name). Watch the service live, on Eden's Facebook page at 5:30 pm CT.

Don't forget to register for LIFE@Eden: "Enneagram," taking place October 29th. The enneagram is a typology for understanding personality that helps you recognize your spiritual gifts and calls you to be your best self. It can be a helpful tool for personal spiritual development. Join Dr. Jill Baker in understanding how the enneagram can enrich your LIFE and your professional and personal connections. "This Week in Eden History," is presented by the Archives at Eden. On this day in 1466, a prominent Dutch Catholic scholar was born. A 1516 first edition of this author's Latin and Greek translations of the New Testament found a home in Eden's Rare Book collection. Find out about the author here!
