

July 2021- June 2022 Generosity Report

Our mission is to strengthen the life of the church by educating women and men for ministry, enlivening critical reflection on faith, and supporting bold Christian discipleship.

Message from President

Rev. Dr. Deborah Krause

The wisdom of this world forms us in an imagination of scarcity. We think we make ourselves, our families, our communities, our nations safe by protecting our resources and holding them close. But of course, these practices drive isolation, inequity, grievance, and violence in our world.

The call of the gospel moves us to take a different path. In the Gospel of Mark, not long after saying “follow me,” Jesus heads into the wilderness without provision and challenges his disciples to share their meagre supplies with a crowd of over 5000 people (Mark 6:30-44). Formed well by the imagination of scarcity, the disciples protest that they do not have enough to share. Jesus persists: “What do you have?” That question inspires a quick inventory of the crowd that when blessed, broken open, and shared feeds thousands. The lesson is clear. Sharing moves us from isolation and fear to joy in community. This is the imagination of the gospel, the way of faith, the power of sharing.

These last years of global health emergency, compounded by the rise in fascism, racism, transphobia, antisemitism and Christian nationalism and their attendant violence might have driven us to retreat into our caves to protect what we imagine is “ours.” But the Spirit has been at work illuminating God’s provision, mobilizing people and communities, forging networks of collaboration, participation, and sharing. With the church, and many other communities, Eden Seminary has been on this journey. As with the disciples, it is changing who we are and how we pursue our mission, thanks be to God!

As we review the provision shared with and through Eden in our programs and mission over 2021-22, we are inspired and encouraged. While the wisdom of this world pulls at our weary fears, the gospel is compelling us to join in nothing short of the redemptive love of God at work in the world. This annual report tells a story of your faithful generosity and Eden’s part in this movement of hope in the gospel. We are so grateful to be on this journey with you!

Celebrating 66 — 10 YEARS —

Rev. Dr. Cary L. Beckwith
Eden Class of 2012

WHEN I ENTERED INTO THE HALLS OF EDEN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY IN 2008, I COULDN'T HAVE POSSIBLY IMAGINED THE LIFE-CHANGING AND TRANSFORMATIVE IMPACT THAT I WAS IN STORE FOR, BOTH PERSONALLY, AND IN MY BURGONING MINISTRY. ADMITTEDLY INITIATED INITIALLY FOR BEING AN "OLDER" STUDENT, I GREW TO UNDERSTAND THAT I WAS A PART OF A COMMUNITY OF FACULTY AND STUDENTS WHO WERE COMMITTED BOTH TO EACH OTHER, AND TO THE LEARNING PROCESS. THERE IS NO WAY TO ADEQUATELY MEASURE HOW MUCH THIS ENGAGING AND LOVING COMMUNITY MEANT TO ME.

IF THERE'S ONE WORD THAT I BELIEVE SUMS UP WHAT EDEN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY DID FOR ME, I WOULD SAY THAT IT "STRETCHED" ME. EDEN STRETCHED ME TO VIEW GOD'S MINISTRY FROM A HOLISTIC STANDPOINT, RECOGNIZING THAT MIND, BODY, AND SPIRIT ARE DESIGNED TO WORK IN UNISON, SO THAT I AM ABLE TO BE MY BEST SELF WHEN IT COMES TO FUNCTIONING IN THE MINISTRY THAT GOD HAS ASSIGNED MY HANDS.

EDEN ALSO STRETCHED ME IN THAT IT CHALLENGED ME TO THINK CRITICALLY, CONTEXTUALLY, AS WELL AS THEOLOGICALLY IN MY MINISTRY. AS I HAVE FOUND MYSELF IN MANY DIFFERENT AND DIVERSE MINISTRY SETTINGS, WHICH HAS CAUSED ME TO DEVELOP THE ABILITY TO ADJUST TO DIVERSE CONTEXTS, EVEN THEOLOGIES, YET REMAIN TRUE TO GOD'S CALLING. I SAY FOR CERTAIN THAT I WOULD NOT HAVE HAD THAT ABILITY HAD IT NOT BEEN FOR BOTH THE LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT, AND EDUCATION THAT I RECEIVED WHILE AT EDEN.

AS 10 YEARS HAVE GONE BY SINCE MY GRADUATION FROM EDEN, AND WITH MANY STOPS IN MINISTRY ALONG THE WAY, YET ONE THING REMAINS FOR CERTAIN: I AM ETERNALLY GRATEFUL AND FOREVER INDEBTED TO EDEN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY FOR INVESTING IN ME AND PROVIDING ME WITH INVALUABLE LESSONS AND A THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION THAT SHAPES AND INFLUENCES ME EVEN TODAY!

The Treasure of Solomon

Solomon is remembered as one of Israel's greatest kings. But was he? We'll start with the narrative material about Solomon in 1 Kings 3-11, and move on to his literary legacy that is found in Psalms 72 and 127, portions of the Book of Proverbs, the Book of Ecclesiastes, and the Song of Solomon (Song of Songs). Participants can decide for themselves how great Solomon was; but spoiler alert, I'll suggest that Solomon's literary legacy was much greater than the actual person. In any case, we'll have an eye toward how the literary legacy of Solomon may continue to instruct and inspire faithful people and communities today.

NEXT Steps: Midlife and Beyond

You are invited to enroll in this 14-week process of self-discovery. For more information, contact Steve Lawler, Director of Walker Leadership Institute at Eden Seminary, at slawler@eden.edu.

NEXT Steps: Vocation and Aging

NEXT Steps introduces participants to theological and psychological concepts of vocation and aging. It is a gathering for adults contemplating or entering retirement, and those who are recently retired.

Orientation

Rev. Beth Long-Higgins, Rev. Steve Lawler, and Jill Schantz would like to invite you to an optional brief orientation to the course and introduction to the instructors on September 1 at 5:30 CST/6:30 EST. This meeting will answer questions of logistics, introduce the instructors, and generally try to make the opening day of NEXT Steps as smooth as possible.

Course Schedule

NEXT Steps will have our first orientation meeting on Tuesday September 1 at 5:30 pm CST/ 6:30 pm EST for approx. one hour. The remaining meetings will all meet for two hours September 7 and 21, October 5 and 19, November 2, 16, and 30, December 4.

Participation

NEXT Steps participants follow a 14-week process of self-discovery through readings, presentations, small group discussions, and discernment. All classes will meet via ZOOM. By the end of the course, participants will have developed a plan for their next phase of life.

Cost

The cost is $500

Text

- Creative Aging by Marjory Zoet Bankson

Other readings, digital resources and personal and group exercises will be assigned throughout the course.

Eden Impacts Church and Community Leaders

As we take in the particular dimensions of the tragic storms of December 10-11, we pray for God to stir our hearts to greater compassion to serve those who are suffering. May we be moved to deeper attention and advocacy to protect workers with safe conditions and our planet from the ravages of climate change.

The images of parents fleeing Ukraine with infants in arms is a sad and tragic reminder of Herod's and Pharaoh's campaigns to kill innocent babies. Like oppressors of old, Putin is a megalomaniac who must be opposed by people of faith and good will.
- Rev. Dr. Clint McCann, Eden Theological Seminary, Evangelical Professor of Biblical Interpretation

From the Community of Scholars:
Matthew Schlimm, commenting on Amos 1:3-2:16 "As armed conflicts across the world increasingly harm the most vulnerable, . . . this text's moral vision offers an alternative to ideologies willing to commit atrocities in the name of personal, tribal, or national security. . . . Amos invites readers to imagine an alternative reality where all nations are accountable for their use of violence and are condemned for inhumane actions. . . ."

Contributions

1 Cor. 1:4... With gratitude, we give thanks for you

Thanks to the generosity of our individual and alumni donors, Eden Seminary's transformational impact is evident around the globe. Foundations and corporate gifts expand that influence. We give special thanks also, to congregations that provide gifts directly to Eden, through denominational conferences and associations and through the CUE (Chicago, United, Eden) UCC Seminaries office. We are grateful for your part in sharing in the work of educating women and men for ministry, enlivening critical reflection on faith and supporting bold, Christian discipleship.

Annual Fund Donors (July 2021-June 2022)

The Annual Fund supports all aspects of the education at Eden and allows us to use your gifts wherever needed most.
