

Stay up to date with what's happening at Eden!

The spring semester is underway and asynchronous classes have already begun. News of Eden's "Network Model of Theological Education" is spreading, and generating excitement among an ever-broadening community. Watch for more details about this initiative, and read on to find an opportunity to join us soon.

Everyone is welcome to participate in LIFE@Eden. Don't miss the next class, "The Bible in the Public Square," taking place Saturday, January 21st, 9:00-3:30 pm CT. Rev. Dr. Deborah Krause will lead the class in exploring how messages of the prophets, Psalm's, gospels, and epistles connect with current events to bear witness for God's justice.
