

Stay up to date with what's happening at Eden!

The summer season is officially upon us and the staff and faculty at Eden Theological Seminary are as busy as ever! Summer classes have started and fall registration is underway. We hope you will help us spread the word...the application fee for new Eden applicants will be waived, and every newly admitted, degree-seeking applicant is guaranteed a $500 "Apply Now" scholarship until August 1, 2023. Read on to see what we're up to and make sure to stop by and say "hello" to Eden reps at one of the many upcoming conferences, workshops and events!

If you are planning a trip to Indianapolis for the 2023 UCC General Synod, June 30th - July 4th, be sure to visit the Eden booth and bookstore! Eden staff and faculty look forward to visiting with you at the Eden booth, which will include interactive displays, Eden merch, book signings and music. You may also enter a drawing for great prizes. If you missed the opportunity to purchase a ticket for the Eden sponsored luncheon, stop by and see us at the Eden booth during exhibit hours. In the next couple of months, you will find #Edenleadin' people at various ecumenical conferences, gatherings, and preaching events. The Admissions staff and faculty have already begun traveling this summer. Rev. Dr. Justin Shamell, Eden's "Relationship Manager and Recruiter of Congregations" has been out and about recruiting new students and introducing Eden's

Center for Lived Faith & Organizing. Justin says, "it has been exciting to share with individuals that Eden is a higher education institution that is progressive in the Christian movement, rooted in social justice, and radically inclusive!" All are welcome on Eden's campus! This month and next, the 19th Annual Webster Arts Fair and the Lion's Club Carnival and BBQ will host their events on the beautiful Eden campus. If you are in the area, make sure to stop by and experience the hospitality of Eden, where you are sure to meet friends!

Refer a student to Eden! If you, or someone you know, are considering a call to ministry, we can help! Our Admissions counselors are ready to help you with discerning a call and will walk you through each step of the process.
