Join us for Spring Convocation!

Thanks for checking out this "Spring Convocation" issue of the "Friends of Eden" newsletter. Make plans to join us April 13th and April 14th, either on campus or via Zoom. We are sure you will find lots of opportunities to reconnect with old friends and make new ones at the events described below. Share the links with a friend...all are welcome to Eden Seminary's Spring Convocation!

This year's theme is "From the Ground Up; Food Security, Farm-To-Table Partnerships, and Pastoral Care." Events begin Thursday, April 13th. Click on any image to see full agenda and details!
Special Presentation featuring Eden's own Rev. Dr. Kristen Leslie and Rev. Dr. Heber Brown.

Special events planned for Thursday, April 13th
Lunch and Book Signing with Dr. Charles Kniker, and special "Herbster" event for Eden graduating classes of 2018-2022 with Rev. Dr. John Dorhauer

Installation of Rev. Dr. Kristen Leslie in Harold Peters Schultz Faculty Chair of Pastoral Theology and Care
Eden Theological Seminary and The Eden Black Alumni Association's annual Spring Convocation breakfast, April 14th, featuring guest preacher, Rev. Dr. Karla Cooper.
(Separate registration required. Click here for details and registration)

Other events include a 50-year anniversary celebration for the Class of 1973, and an "All-Welcome" Homecoming reception on April 13th!
Click here to register now for Eden's Spring Convocation 2023!

For questions or help registering, email us at advancement@eden.edu or call (314) 918-2691.

See you there!