

Stay up to date with what's happening at Eden!

Whether online, blended, or in person, the Eden campus is a gathering place - a home, a safe place, community, and family. During this season of expectancy, we hope you will find your place among the Eden community of learning and join us for an event or class. Read on to find out about Eden's newest program and other events!

An Eden tradition you may remember continues! Students, friends, staff and faculty joined together earlier this week for the annual singing of the "Hallelujah Chorus" and "Amen" in the Press Hall Rand Rotunda. No rehearsal required - just willing bodies and joyous voices. Always so much fun! Click here to watch it on Eden's Facebook page.

New Eden pilot program, "Ministry Formation Cohorts," begins this Spring! Ministry Formation Cohorts are education based on the UCC Marks for Ministry, with different themes each semester. Participants can complete digital content in their own time and meet online four times with their cohort and an experienced facilitator. Click here for details!

Eden tower lights up the sky for the Advent season! The light of Christ is fully present in Webster Groves and Eden's Press Hall tower witnesses to the presence and mission of the seminary. Read the story here.

Are you contemplating or entering retirement? Eden's Next Steps program will help you re-imagine your elderhood! This online, cohort-based program introduces you to theological, philosophical, and psychological concepts of vocation and aging. The class begins with orientation on January 9, 2024.
