

Stay Up To Date With The Happenings At Eden.

Many events are taking place at Eden in the next few weeks. Students in degree programs are nearing "Reading Week," meaning they will have a chance to catch up on reading and take a bit of a "breather." Community learning, and public lectures are ongoing, and just some of the ways you can engage with the Eden community. Make plans to join us for Eden's Spring Convocation on April 24-25. It is the perfect time to connect with the community, engage in learning, and celebrate an important milestone with us - 175 years of educating leaders with theological imagination and faithful resilience. Come, be part of the celebration!

Get Involved

Make sure to visit Eden's website often to find out about upcoming events and special opportunities to gather with the Eden community of learners. Theological education is for everyone...that includes you!

Spring Convocation - April 24-25

Celebrate Eden's 175th anniversary! Make plans to join us for Eden's Spring Convocation on April 24-25. Spring Convocation is a great time for friends, graduates, students, faculty and community learners to engage with the vibrant academic and community life on campus, and remotely. Don't miss the social gatherings, presentations and panels on the theme "Constructing Communities of Resistance: Complex Identities in Biblical and Historical Interpretation" featuring Eden's faculty members, Rev. Dr. Raquel Lettsome and Dr. Henry Kuo. Click here for details and registration.

The Center for Lived Faith and Organizing at Eden

The Center for Lived Faith and Organizing (CLFO) will offer a free workshop for everyone on February 28. "Legal Strategies to Protect our Communities," will be held Online and In-person 12:30-5:00 pm CT. Facilitators include Professor Kenya Brumfield-Young and Natasha Robinson, J.D.. Don't miss this opportunity for you, your community group or congregation. Click here for more information and registration.

Admissions Moment

Application scholarships available! Now through May 30 the Admissions Office is offering scholarship of $1,500 for Master of Divinity and Master of Community Leadership applicants and $1,000 for Master of Theological Studies and Master of Professional Studies applicants. Apply today!

Academic Spotlight

Eden Theological Seminary joins in the nationwide observance of the month of February as Black History Month. The observance connects directly with one of the seminary's curricular goals to form leaders with capacities for resisting racism and intersecting forms of structural oppression in ministry. Click here for photos and story.

Celebrate Eden's 175 years of impact through your financial support

Eden has been forming leaders who move spirits, minds, hands, and systems to join God's love, liberation, and social transformation for 175 years! You are invited to join others celebrating this impact by belonging to the "We Are Eden" Giving Club. Through this special giving club, you help form leaders who engage congregations and communities with depth, imagination, resilience and experience! Click here to learn more about the "We Are Eden" Giving Club!